

Marching Orders – To Work Discussion Questions

Do you find that people link your identity to your work? What does your job say about you?

The fall of man has caused work to be difficult. How do you experience this? What frustrations do you face at the workplace? How do you manage the frustrations in the workplace so that it doesn't flood into your home?

Do you find work enjoyable? Do you feel challenged to approach work differently?

How do you feel about your present job?
Can you faithfully work there in a God honoring and glorifying way?
