

Week 6 - "The Great Homecoming"

Read Genesis 3:1-7. These verses describe the fall of Adam and Eve. What similarities do you see between the fall and the end of the millennium as described in Revelation 20:7-10?

The millennium will reveal not only the depravity in the human heart but also the unending nature of God's sovereignty. He will always accomplish what he has promised to accomplish. Which of God's promises are most important in your life right now? Why?

Read Revelation 20:11-15. Notice in John's account that he calls out one specific book -- the Book of Life. In ancient times, the names of the citizens in a city were recorded in a register. When the person died, the name was struck out of the book of the living. Given this context, what does it mean for a person's name to not be found written in the Book of Life?

Read Revelation 3:5 and Romans 8:31-34. Jesus states that he will never blot out the name of a person in the Book of Life who has found salvation in him. Paul writes that no charge can be brought against those whom God has chosen. What does this reveal about those whose names are found in the Book of Life? What comfort does this give you when you think about all that will transpire at the Great White Throne judgment?

Read through John's vision of the New Jerusalem in Revelation 21:9-27. Which of the images catches your attention? What does that image communicate to you?

Read Matthew 6:19-21. Most of us have been taught over and over to live today in a way that reflects the reality of heaven tomorrow -- but what does that actually look like? On a practical level, what steps can you take to "store up for [yourself] treasures in heaven"?
