“God and Our Wisdom”
Pastor Luke Young

Psalms 112

When we fear the Lord, it should manifest itself through wisdom in every area of life.

1. The Source of Wisdom (v. 1)

“The fear of God...backs us into the acknowledgment that we are made to know God in such a way that our hearts tremble at his beauty and splendor, that we are remade at the deepest level. It shows us that entering the life of Christ involves a transformation of our very affections, so that we begin actually to despise- and not merely renounce- the sins we once cherished, and treasure the God we once abhorred¹.”

Do I obey God out of love or duty?

2. The Fruit of Wisdom (vv. 2-5)

A. Wisdom seen in the home (vv.2-3)

B. Wisdom seen in the community (vv. 4-5; Prov. 4:18)

3. The Strength of Wisdom (vv. 6-8)

A. Wisdom is eternal in duration (v.6)

B. Wisdom is resolute in nature (vv.7-8)

“We fear man so much, because we fear God so little.²”

4. The Ultimate Goal of Wisdom (vv. 9-10)
