“A Not So Happy Ending”

Text: Jeremiah 52:1-34.

Big Idea: God’s judgment of Jerusalem and her subsequent fall causes us to consider our ways and yet be assured of His continuing mercy and grace.

- The fall of Jerusalem serves to remind us that sin will be dealt with.
- The fall of Jerusalem serves as a call to faithfulness.
- God’s providential kindness to king Jehoiachin serves to remind us that the promises of God cannot fail thus we have a future and a hope.

“Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For because of the anger of the Lord it came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that he cast them out from his presence” Jeremiah 52:1-3
