

Esther #4
“For Such a Time as This”
Esther 4:1-17
May 14, 2023

Main Idea: The doctrine of divine sovereignty, rather than simply life, causes us to wrestle with the complexities of life and respond in bold and courageous faith.

I. Life isn't fair and is often filled with danger, difficulties and genuine sorrow. (4:1-11)

II. A biblical understanding of providence rests securely in divine sovereignty while embracing human responsibility. (4:12-14)

III. Equipped with a biblical understanding of providence believers exercise a bold faith. (4:15-17)
