God, A Self-portrait: A Study of the Parables
"A Fearful End"

Text: Matthew 13:47-50

Big Idea: Contrary to popular opinion, and despite nearly universal denial, there is coming a day of judgment in which the wicked will meet a terrifying end.

I understand that is not popular.

I understand that is not a "feel good" message.

Yet it is the truth!

There are 2 very simple, basic truths in this text.

I. There is coming a day of Judgment. (13:47-49)

II. The wicked will meet a terrifying end. (13:50)

Conclusion:

Listen, there is coming a day of judgment and the end of the wicked is terrifying but it doesn't have to be. God, in grace and mercy has provided the means of escape. If you will come to Christ. Admit you are a sinner in rebellion against God. Admit you are deserving of His wrath and judgment and will repent, turn from your sin and truth in Christ alone - you will be saved. You will be heading for heavenly bliss and joy unspeakable rather than agony and torment.

What will you do with the Gospel?
