“A Word to Whiners”

Text: Jeremiah 45:1-5

Let me point out three things from our text and then wrap it up with what I think God was saying to Baruch and in turn to all His saints in times of heartache and distress.

•First, I want you to note the plight of a discouraged, disheartened, and disillusioned servant. (45:3)

•Note the surprising response of the gracious, righteous, and sovereign Lord. (45:4-5a)

•But note the reassuring comfort given by a gracious Savior. (45:5)

Big Idea: In times of great heartache and struggle the disillusioned saint must look beyond his current trouble and cling to God’s sovereign promise.
