

Main Scripture: Hebrews 1:1-3

In the past God spoke (v 1).
(Gen 3:8-9, 6:13; 1 Sam 3:3-11)

God spoke to us through Jesus (v 2).
(Jn 10:27, 14:26; Mat 16:17; Acts 13:1)

God still speaks today (v 3).

Active Listening to God

In your time of hearing from God, ask the following questions:

- a. What commandment do you have for me?
- b. What application can I take from this passage?
- c. What personal message are you telling me?
- d. What promises does this word give?
- e. What sin do I need to confess?
- f. What should I be leaving behind and taking forward?

We will fulfill our created purpose as we revere and enjoy God in all we do, worshiping Him in spirit and in truth. We will live desiring His presence, depending on His power, aligning with His purpose and being obedient to His Word. We will call out to Him personally and corporately, with expectation that He will answer.

We will live life together in small groups, knowing others and being known. We will live lives of transparency and accountability at every level, speaking the truth in love.

We will become whole people through Christ's life in us. We will live as Kingdom people under the filling and control of the Holy Spirit, carrying out God's plan here on this earth.

We will meet the practical needs of our community and serve our church by giving sacrificially of our time and resources, with no strings attached. We will equip ourselves by developing and using all the gifts, becoming the hands and feet of Jesus.

We will share the message of Jesus Christ in word and deed throughout our community, planting churches as we go. We will go, and partner with others who go, around the world to take the gospel to those who have not heard.

The Small Group Sermon Study

Hebrews 1:1-3

Opening Prayer: Father, in Jesus’ name, through the Holy Spirit, come and speak to us, teach us and transform us as we read, discuss and reflect on Your word.

1. Big picture: what did you like or appreciate about this message?
2. Read the key passage(s) of Scripture from the message and review the points from the sermon notes, then answer the following questions:
 - a. What does this tell us about God (Father, Jesus, Holy Spirit)? What do we learn about who He is, how He speaks to us, and what He desires for us?
 - b. How have we experienced God speaking to us as a small group over the past year? How many different ways can we identify that God has spoken to us?
 - c. How can we grow as a group in hearing from God? What would be some practical things we could start to do, or do more of, to experience His voice?
 - d. Is there anything we could/should be asking God to show us as a group right now? If so, take some time to do that before moving on.
3. In which of the five Core Values is our group strongest? On which value do we need to work a lot more?

Silently re-read the key Scripture(s) from the message, asking the Holy Spirit to speak to you.

4. What emotions does this passage, or the key theme, stir up in you?
5. How are you personally hearing God speak these days? How do you want to hear Him speak?
6. Ask the Holy Spirit, “Which of the five Core Values is weakest in my life right now, and what do You want me to do about it?”
7. What verse, phrase, word or challenge do you need to take with you this week? How will you act on what you’ve heard?

Prayer: Spend time praying for one another (that we would grow in our love for God and others, that we would be transformed by what God has revealed, that we would be alert and obedient to God, etc.).
