Message Questions

Did you have an active imagination as a child? How would you describe some of those imaginings? Were they based on reality or fantasy?

Q1

Which of the 6-W's (who, what, where, when, why or how) helped you understand 'surrender' better? Why?

Q2

Of the six named items to surrender, which is easiest and which is hardest for you? (past, worries, control, ways, possessions, money) or is it something else? (future, relationships, hurts, sexuality, dreams, other?)

Q3

Which of the five 'why's of surrender'

- (1) ends the tug-of-war,
- (2) reveals God's agenda,
- (3) invites God blessing,
- (4) is part of the great exchange, or
- (5) is the only appropriate response to God, is most compelling for you? Why?

Q4

Did you use the 'Instrument of Surrender'? Why or why not? Have you found a way of surrendering to God that works for you? What is it?
