Message Questions

Have you ever lost or had something important to you stolen? What was it and what happened? Did you get it back?

If you had to give a reason for the disappearance of 'sin', how would you explain it?

What has been your personal experience with sin? Have you forgotten about it? Are you haunted by it? Have you experienced victory or are you a captive?

Sin emerges in God's creation as a temporary intruder but never the main point! How would you describe what happened to sin in light of the cross and resurrection of Christ?
