QUESTIONS

1 How do you see dependence on God in your own life? How do you measure that?

2 Have experiences of broken trust or let downs impacted your view of God's dependability?

3 How do you understand the difference between equality, equity and justice? How do you see this materialize in Winnipeg? In the larger world?

4 We looked at the concept of Mishpat (Justice) as an invitation to join God is restoring the broken relationships with God, each other, and his creation.
How can you see yourself joining in with God's move of justice?
