Have you ever dug up or found a treasure?
What is it and what makes it valuable to you?

What has been your relationship to the word 'wrath'? Prior to this message, what was your attitude towards the word?

Did your perspective, understanding or heart go on a bit of a journey as the result of this message? If 'yes', how? If 'no', why do you think that is?

How might you explain 'God's wrath' to someone who might have their fingers in their ears and is humming 'la, la, la, la'? How would you help them understand it better?
