

Home for CHRISTMAS

Have you ever had a 'Christmas Crisis': A time when you seriously wondered what we're doing and what Christmas is really all about?

If you had to provide a definition for 'home', what would it include and sound like?

How is Jesus' parable of the wandering son, the gracious father and the unforgiving brother a 'great Christmas story'?

In this three-actor drama, which character do you most identify with?

