

VISION WEEKEND

Message Questions

24/09/23

1. Have you ever had a dream or vision, only to miss the opportunity and be left saying those saddest of words, “It might have been?”

What was it?

2. In terms of your church, would you consider yourself dialled-into-the-purpose and mutually-accountable, a fully-committed ‘team player’? Or, do you struggle with the lure of individualism?

3. Romans 8:15 says, “This resurrection life you received from God is not a timid, grave-tending life. It’s adventurously expectant, greeting God with a childlike “What’s next, Papa?” Do you feel those words describe your life and faith? Why or why not?

4. So far we’ve rolled out six of the eight strategies for bringing the vision to life! Which stirs and excites your heart the most? Which do you think will prove most difficult to make a reality?
