Q1 - Do you find it easy or hard to believe in God? Do you feel a tension between science and theology? If so, how do you reconcile that tension?

Q2 - Is God 'ineffable' (indescribable) and 'trans-categorical' to you or has your God perhaps become 'too small'? How does a person keep from making God small?

Q3 - What are the strongest evidences for God's existence for you personally?

Q4 - How did this teaching help or hinder your understanding of God? What was a moment or concept of impact for you personally? How did it better equip you to share your answer with others?
