

MESSAGE QUESTIONS

1. What do you understand Paul's statement in 2 Corinthians 5, 'that we've been left here in tents that will one day be taken down' to mean? How does this statement shape our world-view?
 2. How do you feel about your role as 'an ambassador of Christ'? What do you find most difficult about being an ambassador of Christ?
 3. Do you ever find yourself drawn into the polarization of culture? Why is it so hard to resist? Can you point to any examples in Christ's life when He resisted the polarization?
 4. Ambassadors operate 'between two worlds'! They take up the 'radical middle'! The 'third space'! Have you ever occupied that space? What challenges are there to living in this space? What payoffs or benefits result from living in this space?
