

-
1. Have you ever experienced the force of a natural disaster? (Ie: hurricane, earthquake, tsunami, wild-fire, flood, tornado, ice-storm, blizzard?) What emotions accompanied the threat? Which natural-disaster would you be most fearful of?
  2. Dr Denison identifies four tectonic-plates in culture that have or are shifting: the rise of the post-truth culture, the sexual revolution, critical theory and the rise of secular religion. Which of these have the most impact on your life and why?
  3. Christianity no longer drives culture. In fact, Christians are often seen as irrelevant, intolerant, oppressive and dangerous. Are these labels warranted and is there anything we can do, without compromising our beliefs, to help change them?
  4. In Acts 17, Paul's encounter with a culture that opposed him. What did you learn from how Paul approached and handled the situation?
-