

Home for CHRISTMAS

In your opinion, what is the best Christmas movie ever? Did 'Elf' make the cut? Why do you love the movie you chose?

How would you describe your anticipation, excitement and eagerness for heaven? Why do you think you approach heaven in that way?

If you were asked to describe heaven and a person's experience in heaven prior to this message, what would have been your answer? What do you think is the impression most people have of heaven?

How did this message challenge you or change your impression of heaven as our eternal home?
