Con Amigos Como Estos

Este domingo comenzamos un recorrido de dos semanas por el Libro de Job, la gran final de la literatura sapiencial del Antiguo Testamento. A menudo malinterpretado, Job se debate con una de las preguntas más profundas de la vida: ¿Es Dios justo? Ante una pérdida devastadora, la historia de Job desafía las respuestas simplistas y nos invita a reflexionar sobre cuál es el verdadero consuelo. Acompáñenos a explorar cómo la presencia, y no los tópicos, puede ser el regalo más poderoso que ofrecemos a quienes sufren. Ven preparado para reflexionar, luchar y estar presente.

SERMON NOTES

With Friends Like These

This Sunday, we begin a two-week journey through the Book of Job—the grand finale of Old Testament wisdom literature. Often misunderstood, Job wrestles with one of life's deepest questions: Is God just? In the face of devastating loss, Job's story challenges simplistic answers and invites us to consider what true comfort looks like. Join us as we explore how presence, not platitudes, can be the most powerful gift we offer to those who suffer. Come ready to reflect, wrestle, and be present.
