What's In A Nickname?

Abraham Lincoln once served as a character witness, although it is doubtful he did much good. When asked about the word of a man named Peter Lukins, Lincoln responded honestly, "Well, he is called Lyin' Pete Lukins."

In the Scriptures, we get some insight into the nature of some biblical characters by the names they are given.

For example, Jacob is called Israel or one who struggles with God, and Barnabas is called the "Son of Encouragement."

President Abraham Lincoln

Some of these names were imparted by Jesus Himself, like Simon Peter the Rock or the Sons of Thunder, James and John.

So, what might Jesus give you as a nickname? He knows our hearts and our ways better than anyone. Complainer? The Servant? Joy Killer? Learner? The Encourager? The Gossip?

What trait is the one that defines us in the eyes of others? Is it one that is befitting of a Christian?

"Make sure that none of you suffers as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or a troublesome meddler; but if anyone suffers as a Christian, he is not to be ashamed, but is to glorify God in this name."

1 Peter 4:15-16

Stellar

I'm a huge fan of VBS. I love everything about it—the decorations, the snacks, the silly songs, the cheesy skits. It encapsulates everything I enjoy about life in one event.

This year, our theme for the Del City VBS is “Stellar: Shine Jesus’ Light.” I love this theme not only because it inspires amazing space decorations but also because it conveys an important message to young people: in a world of darkness, you can be the light of Jesus for someone.

This theme is deeply rooted in the Bible, and one of my favorite verses that illustrates this concept is John 8:12, where Jesus proclaims, “I am the Light of the World.”

What does this mean? Why does Jesus use this specific language? If Jesus is making this claim about himself, what does it mean for us? We'll explore all these questions and more as we dive into John 8!

Notas Del Sermon - Estelares

Soy un gran fan de Escuela Bíblica. Me encanta todo. Las decoraciones, las golosinas, las canciones chistosas, las actuaciones, es todo lo que me encanta de la vida Y lo puedo encontrar en este evento. La iglesia de Del City estarán haciendo escuela bíblica este año y el tema es "Estelares: Brillando la luz de Jesús". Me gusta este tema no solo porque las decoraciones son súper impresionantes, sino que también da un mensaje importante a los jóvenes; en un mundo de oscuridad, puedes ser la luz de Jesús para alguien. La base de este tema se encuentra en toda la Biblia, pero uno de mis versículos favoritos que pone esto en perspectiva es el versículo que servirá como nuestro texto de anclaje esta mañana. Es Juan 8:12 donde Jesús proclama: "Yo soy la Luz del Mundo". ¿Qué significa esto? ¿Por qué Jesús usa este lenguaje específico? Si Jesús está haciendo esta afirmación sobre sí mismo, ¿qué significa para mí? ¡Todas estas respuestas, y MÁS se pueden encontrar en Juan 8!
