Working Together: Our Church Family's Journey

When summer comes, many of us embark on exciting journeys that create lifelong memories. Some go to the lake to fish and swim, while others travel cross-country or take special trips with their church. Along the way, we've all seen people stranded on the side of the road, and sometimes, we may have been in that unfortunate situation ourselves. Cars can break down for various reasons like tire problems, mechanical issues, or faulty wipers during bad weather, which make it hard to see the road. Imagine if those vehicles wanted to keep moving forward on their journey; they would need all their parts working together. Just like a car, our church family relies on each of us, like different parts, to work together in unity.

A well-running car has specific roles for each part. The engine provides power, the wheels make it move, the steering helps it turn, and the brakes slow it down. When all these parts work smoothly together, the car functions efficiently and safely. Similarly, our church is like a spiritual vehicle. Each of us has unique gifts and talents that, when combined, create a strong and connected group. Just as a car can't go anywhere without all its parts working together, our church needs every member to contribute and cooperate.

The Bible also talks about this idea in 1 Corinthians 12:12-14, comparing Christ's followers to a body with many parts but united as one. We are all part of the same body of believers, and each one of us has a role to play. When we work together with kindness and respect for one another, God's love and grace flow through us, creating a welcoming place for anyone seeking comfort and friendship.

“We are all part of the same body of believers, and we each have a role to play”

However, if we allow disagreements and divisions to grow, it can slow down our progress as a church family. Instead, we should always strive to be understanding and supportive, just like the different parts of a car that support each other. As we continue on our journey as a church, let's commit to being a strong and loving community. Each one of us is important, and when we work together, we can face any challenges that come our way. Remember, just like a car needs all its parts, our church needs all of us to keep moving forward and fulfill our purpose. So let's come together, united in love, and make our church family journey a memorable and meaningful one.

SERMON NOTES

ONE : Embracing Unity, Collaboration, and Interdependence in the church 1 Corinthians 12:12-27

The Bible talks a lot about being united and how important it is to be connected to Christ. In 1 Corinthians 12:12-27, we learn about the beauty of unity even when we are all different. Being "ONE" in Christ doesn't just affect our church, but it also makes a difference in our own lives and the world. Let's look at three important principles we should follow to impact lives and bring glory to God.

1. ONE Body, Many Parts

- a. The church is like a B_____, with M_____ members but functioning as O_____ entity.
- b. 1 Corinthians 12:12-27 - We are all part of O_____ body of Christ, each playing a U_____ role.

2. ONE T_____, ONE M_____

- a. Just as the body's parts work together, the church must C_____ to fulfill its O_____ mission.
- b. 1 Corinthians 12:20-22 - Each P_____ has a V_____ role, and unity creates a strong impact.

3. ONE F_____, ONE P_____

- a. Interdependence in the church promotes S_____ and C_____ growth.
- b. 1 Corinthians 12:25-27 - Caring for one another fosters a sense of O_____ in Christ.

Please fill out an attendance card and pass it to the end of the aisle.

Glenda and I would like to say thank you to everyone who has made us feel so welcome. Last Sunday's welcome was over and above what we ever could have imagined. The gifts were appreciated, the meal was delicious, but your expressions of love and welcome have been beyond what we could have ever expected. We both look forward to getting to know each of you, to working with you, and to encourage you as you have done us. Thank you for your generous hospitality.
