SERMON NOTES

Lord of Shabbat

1. The Bridegroom Has Come

- At a wedding feast, guests were exempt from solemn obligations, including _____.
- Jesus makes a massive implicit claim: the _____ has arrived.

2. New Wine for a New Day

- Jesus is new wine for a new day, with new implications for a new life:
 - Not _____
 - _____
 - _____

3. The Gift God Gave

- In a world where empires worked slaves to death without a break, God commanded His people to stop every _____ day.
- Weekly Reminder: You are not defined by what you _____, but by who you are in _____.

1. A Fence Around the Torah

- By the first century, dozens of meticulous sub-rules had been added to define exactly what counted as "_____".
- Instead of a day of delight, joy, and restoration, Sabbath had become an anxious, hyper-monitored _____.

2. Jesus as the True David

- Jesus points to 1 Samuel 21 where David receives the sacred Bread of the Presence—bread reserved only for _____.
- The Priority: Preservation of human _____ over ceremonial boundaries.
- Like David, Jesus is anointed king, but He is more: He is the Son of Man, the _____ of the Sabbath.

3. The Law's Purpose

- The purpose of the Law is _____ and _____.

7. Are You Living in Old Wineskins?

- It is easy to find comfort in our _____ and move from "this is the way it should be" to "everyone else is wrong."

1. Ask a Better Question

- Instead of asking: "How do I feel about this?"
- Ask: "Does this reflect the _____ of God more closely?"

2. Resting in the Lord of the Sabbath
