SERMON NOTES

Spiritual Disciplines: Worship

I. The Definition: Worship as "Avodah"

- In the Hebraic worldview, this word is used interchangeably between "_____ " and "_____".
- Worship is inextricably linked to _____.
- We don't "go" to worship; we live in a _____ of offering.

II. A Change of Masters (Exodus 3:12)

- God told Moses that after bringing the people out of Egypt, they would _____ (avad) God on the mountain.
- The same word for the "_____ " the Israelites left in Egypt is used for the "_____ " they offer to God.

III. The Posture: Shachah

- Shachah literally means "to _____ down" or "to _____ oneself".
- Worship is the recognition of God's Kabod—His heavy, _____ glory.
- In Genesis 22:5, the first time "worship" appears in the Bible, it is used in the context of Abraham's ultimate _____ and _____.

IV. Living Worship (Romans 12:1)

- Paul uses the Greek word latreia, which mirrors the Hebrew _____.
- Worship isn't just a song; it is the _____ offering of your entire life.

V. The Purpose of the Assembly

- The Huddle Analogy: Think of the assembly like a _____ in a football game. It is essential for instructions and focus, but the team isn't actually _____ the game if they stay in the huddle all day.
- The "Encouragement Station": Hebrews 10:24-25 links the assembly to our ability to live a life of "_____ and good deeds".
- The "Corrective" (Psalm 73): The "_____ " of the world may not change, but our _____ does once we engage in the discipline of worship.
- Instead of thinking of the church service as the only time of worship, we should think of it as the _____ of a _____ of worship.

Please fill out an attendance card and pass it to the end of the aisle.
