

EN ESPAÑOL

- NOTAS DEL SERMON - Pedro y Juan encontraron a un hombre lisiado que había estado así durante 40 años. Pidió dinero. Le dieron mucho, mucho más. Dinero no tenían, pero la actitud de Pedro de te doy lo que tengo es en lo que nos queremos enfocar hoy. Esta actitud resume el significado de ser un discípulo de Jesús y es la actitud que debemos tener para hacer crecer una gran iglesia. Notemos dos formas en las que esta actitud es el centro del discipulado y central para el crecimiento de la iglesia.

SERMON NOTES

Growing a Great Church: "I'll Give You What I Have" Acts 3:1-10

Peter and John encountered a crippled man who had been that way for 40 years. He asked for money. They gave him much, much more. Money they didn't have, but Peter's attitude of I'll give you what I have is what we want to focus on today. This attitude sums up the meaning of being a disciple of Jesus and is the attitude we must have in order to grow a great church. Let's notice two ways in which this attitude is the center of discipleship and central to church growth.

I. Center of D_____ R_____.

- With every G_____ comes certain R_____.
- We don't work to B____ saved; we work because we A____ saved.
- What Peter G_____ we can all G_____:
  - We can give our T_____.
  - We can give our T_____.
  - We can give our T_____.
- Even with our "S_____ and G_____" we must adopt the attitude I'll give you what I have.

II. Center of Disciple J_____ and F_____.

- Real joy and fulfillment are the H_____ G_____ treasures in life for which all people are searching.
- To be F_____, you must G_____ it away.
- The only treasure we have in H_____ is what we send ahead while on E_____ (1 Timothy 6:18-19).
- "After all, we brought N_____ with us when we came into the world, and we can't take A_____ with us when we leave it" (1 Timothy 6:7).

Please fill out an attendance card and pass it to the end of the aisle.

EDITORIAL

Come Grow Old With Me

A white headed couple walking side by side together. What a precious sight, knowing that the years are etched upon their faces! The children have grown up under their watchful care and now are gone. The mortgage is paid. The decades have faded into the distance, winnowing away their youth. She is cradled in his heart. He is her strength and assurance.

The years have blown their winds of turmoil. They have weathered the early years of struggle and adapting. They have turned their arguments into their own personal little jokes. He knows where to pick and how much is too far. She knows how to respond in her own tart but gentle way.

As they have learned to build and overcome together, they have discovered the hidden secret of the ages. Time heals. Every hurt endured, every fault overlooked, every compassion given, every courtesy shown, every quarrel resolved is all a part of growing toward one another.

Their only regret is that they couldn't have learned these little lessons sooner. If they could have had this understanding when they were younger. But, no. It was the learning of their lessons by trial and error that gained for them this wisdom.

Together they could give much advice to a younger generation bent on taking without giving. Few would listen. But, those who would give an ear to their words would hear them say, "Stay together. Through thick and thin, through ups and downs, through quarrels and peace...stay true. The end is better than the beginning."

Their example is a quiet testimonial of God's wisdom in ordaining marriage. See him reach for her hand? See her give his hand a little squeeze? Look into their eyes. The youth isn't gone. The sparkle is still there. The young man and young girl who said "I do" still remain. Some things years cannot change. The poet has said that the real reward of life is for a young man and a young woman to say one to another early in life, "Come and grow old with me."

<sup>18</sup> Then the Lord God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him." <sup>21</sup> So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and while he slept took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. <sup>22</sup> And the rib that the Lord God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup> Then the man said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man." <sup>24</sup> Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh (Genesis 2:18, 21-24).
