- NOTAS DEL SERMON - El Dios de una Segunda Oportunidad - Siempre experimentarás tus mayores derrotas justo después de tus mayores victorias. El capítulo 6 de Josué es una historia de gran victoria. El capítulo 7 habla de la agonía de la derrota. Pero el capítulo 8 es la historia de una segunda oportunidad para volver a tener la victoria. Hoy notaremos dos grandes bendiciones, porque Dios es un Dios de una segunda oportunidad.

SERMON NOTES

Victorious Living: The God of a Second Chance Joshua 8:1-25

You will always experience your biggest defeats right after your greatest victories. Chapter 6 of Joshua is a story of great victory. Chapter 7 tells of the agony of defeat. But chapter 8 is the story of a second chance to have victory again. Notice two great blessings because God is a God of a second chance.

I. F_____ Is Not F_____ (Joshua 8:1).

- G_____ is not a G_____ who holds a G_____.
- The beauty of the Gospel is that F_____ can be F_____.

C. Consider the Second Chance Hall of Fame:

- M_____ Failure — S_____
- F_____ Failure — J_____ M_____
- Z_____ Failure — S_____ of T_____
- F_____ Failure — S_____ P_____

- God's M_____ never E_____ (Lamentations 3:22-23).
- What will you D_____ with your S_____ C_____?

II. Satan's T_____ Is Only T_____ (Joshua 8:2-25).

- Satan's C_____ are those who S_____ him.
- Joshua's military strategy was called A_____.
- It is easy to look at the C_____ of S_____ and M_____ at their prosperity (Psalm 73).
- Ai is a picture of what God is G_____ to D_____.
- The success of S_____ is not S_____.

C_____ that F_____ to God and
A_____ your second chance.

Please fill out an attendance card and pass it to the end of the aisle.

EDITORIAL

Handling Stress

There is a story about a man who walked backward across the United States. He started in California and ended in New York. At the end of his journey, someone asked, "What was the hardest part of your trip? What was the single most difficult thing? Was it the desert, or the mountains, or the rivers?"

"No," the man answered. "It was the sand in my shoes."

Little worries, nagging anxieties, frustrating annoyances can destroy us. We seem to handle the big concerns pretty well, but the little worries are the sand in our shoes. There is a lot of wisdom in this prayer: "Lord, we can handle the elephants, but please deliver us from these gnats."

Henry Emerson Fosdick described the ruin of a gigantic tree on the slope of Long's Peak in Colorado. Naturalists estimated it has stood for some 400 years. It was a seedling when Columbus arrived in San Salvador; it was half grown when the pilgrims settled in Plymouth. During the course of its long life, it had been struck by lightning fourteen times and innumerable avalanches and storms had hit it, lashed it and thundered past it. In the end, however, it fell. Why? Because an army of tiny beetles ate their way through the bark and gradually destroyed the tree with their incessant attacks. A forest giant which age could not wither, lightning could not blast, and storms could not subdue, fell at last before beetles so small you could crush them with your finger.

What's the irritant in your life? What pressures, worries, resentments gnaw away and devastate us from within? What can we do? How do we cope?

Travel light. Decide what is really important and give your energy to those things. We can't do everything, so we must decide what really matters and weed out the rest.

Take one step at a time. Do one thing at a time. Live one day at a time. A clock figured out it would have to tick more than 31 million times in one year. Overwhelmed by that thought, the clock just quit. Until someone reminded it that it didn't need to tick them all at once—just one tick at a time. Jesus said, "Don't worry about tomorrow, live one day at a time."

Relax your soul in God. The idea is to sow the seed the best you can and trust God to bring in the harvest. No matter how bleak the outlook, how hopeless the odds, how stacked the deck, just sow the seed and leave the rest to God. When life gets stressful, we get better by leaning on Him.
