SERMON NOTES

Out of Context – "Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me?"

Challenging the Traditional View

- The Traditional View: Many believe God the Father turned His back on the Son because He could not look upon sin.
- The Consequence: In this view, Jesus is seen as isolated, broken, and truly _____.
- The Paradox: Since Jesus is 100% God and 100% Man, we must ask: Can God turn His back on Himself?
- The Pattern: Usually, Jesus addresses God as "_____", but on the cross, He cries "My God," implying He may be speaking _____ God to those listening.

The Technique: Remez

- Definition: In Hebrew, the word Remez literally translates to "_____".
- The Method: A Rabbi would mention a keyword or phrase to point to a broader passage of Scripture.
- The Goal: This technique effectively imports the entire scriptural meaning into the current _____.

The Crucial Message: "God is With Me"

- The Shift: In Psalm 22:22, the tone shifts from deep grief to a crescendo of _____.
- The Truth: Psalm 22:24 declares that God has not hidden His face but has heard the cry of the afflicted.
- The Victory: Jesus' message to the onlookers was a profound refutation of abandonment; His message was actually "_____".

The Big Takeaway: Standing in the Darkest Hour

- The Promise: God did not leave Jesus alone, and He won't turn His back on you.
- Context Changes _____.
- Jesus was _____ in the text.
