SERMON NOTES

The Next Right Step

I. The First Missionary Journey (c. 46-48 AD)

- During his first journey, Paul encountered significant obstacles that seemed to threaten the mission.
- Two major setbacks included:
 - _____ leaving the group.
 - Paul being _____ for dead.
- Paul's Perspective: He viewed these challenges as merely _____. While the enemy used "rocks" to stop the _____, Paul's response was to push back harder.

II. The Divine Redirection

- The Lesson of "No": When God says "No," it doesn't necessarily mean you've made a _____. Often, the message is "Not yet, or _____."

III. The Reality of Troas

- Troas is described as "_____." With nowhere left to turn, Paul had to sit in the discomfort of limbo.
- The Waiting Room: This is the space where the _____ is dead, but the next "Yes" hasn't arrived yet.
- Breadcrumb Faith: Troas is where we find our "breadcrumb faith"—looking for the _____ and quiet guidance God is giving us.

IV. "Symbibazontes" – Knitting Together

- The term Symbibazontes means "_____."
- Paul and his team didn't have a _____; they had a narrative.
- They followed breadcrumbs that led them in a certain direction, and all they could do was the _____.

V. What About Us?

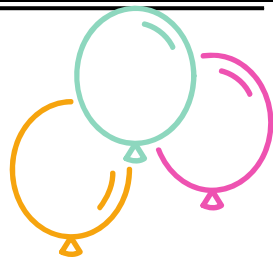

To find our way forward, we must:

1. Distinguish between the _____ and the "_____."
2. Embrace your _____.
3. _____ the story.

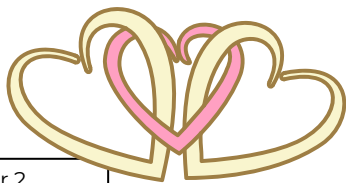

Please fill out an attendance card and pass it to the end of the aisle.
