SERMON NOTES

The Reason for the Hope That We Have

I. Who are These Guys/ The Road to Emmaus

- While the text mentions Cleopas, the unnamed disciple traveling with him was likely his _____, _____.
- The journey was a _____-mile trek winding downhill from Jerusalem to the village of Emmaus.
- The name "Emmaus" means "_____ _____" and represented a place of comfort or escape from their pain.
- Their hope for the _____ of Israel from Rome seemed shattered by His death.

II. Significance of the Third Day

For the disciples, three days carried profound _____ and _____ weight:

- The disciples waited until the "afternoon of the _____" before deciding it was over.

III. Recognizing the Savior

- Initially, the travelers were "kept from _____ Him".
- Jesus didn't want them to trust their feelings; He wanted them to come to the truth through _____.

IV. The Big Reveal: Exile Over

- By breaking the bread, Jesus closed the _____ of _____.
- The children of Adam are brought out of exile and back into the _____ of God.
- This was the inaugural meal of the New Kingdom—the _____ Supper of the New Eden.

V. Our Reaction

- Easter is not just an event we look back on; it is a _____ we are invited to.
- We are challenged to stop looking for "_____ " and start looking at the "_____".
- Don't let your "burning heart" cool down in isolation; _____ to the community.
- Go and declare to others: "_____ is _____!".

Please fill out an attendance card and pass it to the end of the aisle.
