SERMON NOTES

In My Father's House

I. The Context: Three Days Lost?

- A Communal Journey: Passover pilgrims traveled to Jerusalem in huge _____. The trip was a journey of nearly ____ miles on foot.
- A Shared Assumption: Because everyone traveled with extended family (aunts, uncles, grandparents, and cousins), Jesus was assumed to be safe with a _____.
- Between Child and Man: At twelve years old, Jesus could travel with the women and children up front or the men guarding the rear.
 - Joseph thought He was with _____, enjoying His last days of boyhood.
 - Mary thought He was with _____, proving He was ready to be a man.

II. Found in the House of Study

- Rabbinic Dialogue: Rabbinic teaching was not a lecture, but a combative, brilliant dialogue of questions and answers. To ask a _____ was the ultimate mark of mastery.
- The Collision of Two Fathers: When Mary and Joseph found Him, Mary's panic boiled over in distress. Jesus responded by quietly redrawing the lineage lines:
 - Mary said His father was _____, the carpenter of Nazareth.
 - Jesus declared His Father is _____, the King of the universe.
- A Unique Claim: By calling God "My Father" in a personal, singular way, a twelve-year-old Jesus claimed a uniquely intimate, _____ relationship with the God of Israel.

Practical Application: Where Do We Find Him?

1. The Numbness of the Urgent: We can easily lose _____ to Jesus Himself when we get too busy managing "church things" and family logistics. We become numb to His presence in the traffic of routine.
2. Searching the Wrong Places: Jesus is not found in the crowd, the network, or status. The King is found where Heaven and Earth meet—in the _____ and deep communion with the Father.
3. The Power of Hidden Faithfulness: If you feel stuck in a "Nazareth season," remember that hidden years are not _____ years. Submission and routine are the very tools God uses to shape us for the Kingdom.

Closing Charge: "The King of the universe did not bypass the mundane routines of life; He prepared for His throne through _____ years of hidden faithfulness in Nazareth."
