BOOK OF THE MONTH

Title: The Beast That Crouches at the Door

Author: Rabbi David Fohrnam

Purchase: Amazon

A Masterclass in Biblical Insight

Garrett's Review:

Rabbi David Fohrman's
The Beast That Crouches
at the Door is a wonderful new analysis of the first chapters of the Bible.

With the precision of a scholar and the heart of a teacher, Fohrman invites readers to revisit the familiar Genesis narratives—Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel—and discover layers of meaning that are often overlooked or dulled by repetition. This isn't just commentary; it's a spiritual excavation.

What sets this book apart is Fohrman's rare ability to blend micro-level textual analysis with sweeping philosophical insight. He doesn't just ask questions—he teaches you how to ask better ones. Why did God mark Cain? What does the Tree of Knowledge really represent? These aren't rhetorical musings; they're doorways into a deeper understanding of human nature, divine intention, and moral struggle.

Fohrman's writing is accessible yet profound, making it ideal for both seasoned Torah students and curious newcomers. His concept of the "Lullaby Effect"—how we gloss over disturbing or complex biblical stories because we've heard them since childhood—is a brilliant framing device that challenges readers to engage with Scripture afresh.

This book is a gift to anyone who wants to wrestle with the text, not just read it. It's the kind of work that doesn't just inform—it transforms. The Beast That Crouches at the Door will leave you stirred, enlightened, and eager for more.

Highly recommend

The Value of Contentment

Ecclesiastes 6

In a world that constantly whispers “more,” Scripture invites us to discover the peace of “enough.” Join us as we explore Ecclesiastes 6 and other passages that challenge the myth of satisfaction through excess. This message reframes gluttony as a spiritual hunger and calls us to embrace the joy of trusting God’s provision. Come ready to reflect, be challenged, and find rest for your soul.

I. Contentment

- a. You will never _____ God’s _____, if are never _____, with what you _____.
- b. Very similar description to that of _____.
  - i. Death is personified as a _____ always seeking to devour _____.

II. The sin of _____.

- a. _____ is not just about overeating, it is a symptom of _____.
- b. The Hebrew word for appetite is _____.
  - i. Implying a _____ problem.

III. _____ Vs. _____.

- a. “I’ll never have _____” vs. God has given me _____.
- b. The question is not “_____” but “_____”.

Questions for Reflection:

1. What’s one area of your life where you feel discontent? Why?
2. Can you recall a time when you had “less” but felt more fulfilled?
