

What Is A Ministry Fair?

Next Sunday, March 6th, Del City church of Christ will hold its Ministry Fair. Why are we doing this event? What is in it for me?

A Ministry Fair is held to generate awareness, enthusiasm, and involvement among members, ultimately increasing our ministries. It is an event that showcases many of the church's ministries and recognizes the importance of all volunteer efforts. The Ministry Fair provides members a chance to meet, gather information, and learn about serving opportunities available through the various ministries within the church.

The Fair also serves to educate you about stewardship while also helping you grow in your relationship with the Lord. It allows you to ask questions, discern your many gifts and talents, and learn how you can share your gift within a particular ministry. And for those already involved in a ministry, it is an opportunity to recommit your time and talent.

Each ministry will have a table located in the lobby. We hope to see everyone next Sunday after morning worship in lieu of Bible Class, and we invite you to stay for lunch afterward in the Family Life Center. Consider sharing your time and talents so that Del City may continue to be a thriving and vibrant community!

Here is a list of some of the ministries that you will be able to learn about.
