Family Devotional

Accepting Differences

Talking to God

Ask God to show you people in the body of Christ who are different from you. Pray that you will accept and respect them.

Diving In

Play a quick game of “Who Am I?” Rather than guessing people by name, explain that you will be guessing types of personalities (shy, inquisitive, mature, goofy). Write different personality types on slips of paper. Drop the slips in a bowl. Then have each family member draw one. Take turns acting in character as other family members ask questions to figure out the personality type you are pretending to be.

Going Deeper

Talk with your child about how the different personalities your family acted out could complement one another. God created each of us with unique personalities, and our differences can draw us closer to one another and to God. Jesus connected with people of all kinds. His closest friends included passionate and sometimes short-tempered Peter, loyal and devoted John and rational yet doubting Thomas. Jesus said in Mark 3:34-35 that whoever does the will of God is His family. To be like Jesus, we must accept all who make up the body of Christ. Respect for our differences has the potential to bring us together to serve Him.

Talking to Each Other

What kinds of people tend to frustrate you?

Why do you think they are hard for you to accept?

How can you show acceptance to people in the body of Christ who are different from you?

—Karen Schmidt and Janine Petry

My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. John 15:12

Disconnect: Using Technology Wisely

We live in an era of instant access—air conditioning, fast food, and yes, even the ability to read every translation of the Bible with a swipe. Technology is undoubtedly a gift—but one that must be stewarded well. Join us as we shift gears from critique to appreciation, exploring how modern tools can deepen our faith, build others up, and expand the Kingdom. This practical sermon will offer both spiritual principles and real-world tools to help us honor God through the way we use tech. Let's learn, connect, and avoid burying our blessings.

I. Learning

- a. _____ 1:5
- b. _____ 18:15
- c. _____ 3: 16-17
- d. We have, more than ever before, have access to the _____, and its _____.
- i. Resources
 1. _____.
 2. _____.
 3. _____.

II. _____.

- a. _____ 4:29
 - i. We have the opportunity to _____, but to often we, instead, _____.

Questions for Reflection:

1. What resource might most help you in your study?
Which will you commit to using?
2. What safeguards will you use to help you be more encouraging on social media, rather than negative?

EN ESPAÑOL

Desconectarse: Usando Tecnología Sabiamente

Vivimos en una época de acceso instantáneo: aire acondicionado, comida rápida y, sí, incluso la posibilidad de leer todas las traducciones de la Biblia con solo deslizar el dedo. La tecnología es sin duda un regalo, pero uno que debe administrarse bien. Únase a nosotros en este cambio de perspectiva, pasando de la crítica a la apreciación, y explorando cómo las herramientas modernas pueden profundizar nuestra fe, edificar a otros y expandir el Reino. Este sermón práctico ofrecerá tanto principios espirituales como las herramientas del mundo nos puede ayudarnos a honrar a Dios a través del uso de la tecnología. Aprendamos, conectemos y evitemos enterrar nuestras bendiciones.
