SERMON NOTES

Spiritual Disciplines - Submission

I. Understanding Submission

- Definition: Submission is aligning one's own _____ to a higher authority.
- The Discipline: Think of it as the act of putting yourself back into your "_____".
- The Goal (Shalom): In Hebrew, this means more than just the absence of conflict; it refers to _____ or _____.
- The Result: Friction like stress, anxiety, and anger begins to _____ because you are no longer fighting against the way things are meant to be.

II. Submission in Action

- We are often willing to sacrifice our _____ for the sake of our pride.
- We are often willing to sacrifice our _____ in order to be right.
- The Turning Point: His servants gave him profound advice: "_____".
- The Healing: Instead of dying in his _____, he goes into the water and receives _____.

III. Anavah (Humility): At its heart, this Hebrew word means _____.

- A deeper dimension of humility that means not _____ that is not ours.
 - We often try to control other people's _____.
 - We often try to control the _____.
 - We often try to fix things that only _____ can fix.
- The Shift: When you stop trying to manage the entire world, you find you have plenty of energy to manage your own _____.

Please fill out an attendance card and pass it to the end of the aisle.
