SERMON NOTES

Shameless

I. A Wartime Manifesto for the Dirt

1. When the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, they were not looking for religious ritual; they asked, "What is the prayer that defines our _____?"
2. Jesus did not provide abstract, high-minded theology. Instead, He gave His followers a down-in-the-dirt, _____.

II. Re-Centering the Cosmos

• Layer 1: "Our Father"

Shifts our focus away from hyper-individualistic spirituality and plants us squarely in _____. We are in this together.

• Layer 2: "Hallowed Be Your Name"

Rooted in the ancient Near Eastern concept of bearing a name. This petition is not just a song of praise; it is an active mandate to _____ and _____ God's holy character before the surrounding culture.

III. Trusting the Shepherd One Day at a Time

Two contrasting economies:

- Imperial Stockpiling: Driven by _____, hoarding, and radical self-reliance.
- Daily Bread: A direct remez (hint/reference) to Exodus 16. A posture of radical _____ for the coming day's ration without hoarding.

IV. The Cosmic Cancellation of Debt

Understanding the distinction between two biblical concepts:

- Forgiveness: Releasing bitterness and canceling the ledger before God. Kingdom Requirement: _____
- Reconciliation: Rebuilding trust; requires true repentance and healthy boundaries. -Kingdom Requirement: _____

Core Principle: You cannot live in the King's economy and receive the cosmic cancellation of your own debt while clutching _____ and _____ against your neighbor.

V. Acknowledging the Fragility of Human Morality

- "Lead us not into testing" is a prayer for spiritual _____.
- We are asking God to shepherd us around catastrophic spiritual _____ that exceeds our human capacity to endure.

VI. The Parable of the Midnight Knock (Luke 11:5-8)

The Meaning of Anaideia

- The Greek word in Luke 11:8 is Anaideia, meaning "the refusal of _____" or "shameless impudence."
 - The Asker: Shows audacious _____, refusing to leave the door.
 - The Giver: Acts to defend his own _____ and standing in the community.
- The asker is shameless because he completely trusts the _____ of the Door-Keeper.
