There is a Redeemer

(The Book of Ruth)

The Epistle of Galatians is an urgent message from the Apostle Paul who is greatly alarmed at the prospect that the Galatian churches were prepared to leave the freedoms that they have gained in Christ and adopt a practice that would put them into bondage. In the book Freed for Freedom, written by Edward Wharton, the author states: "The message of Galatians is one of life and death. The gospel preached to the Galatians is that through the cross sinners can by faith in Christ be freed from sin, and by faithfulness remain free from sin and have peace with God." This all-important message is foreshadowed in the role of the kinsman-redeemer we read about in the Old Testament. The book of Ruth will help our understanding of this role and how it was ultimately fulfilled in the Person of Christ Jesus.

I. The Role of a Kinsman-Redeemer (Various Texts): The Law and of Christ

1. To A_____ a Murdered Relative
(Num. 35:19; Joel 3:20-21; Rev. 6:10)

American Slaves

(Romans 6:15-19)

We are blessed to live in a country free from slavery. Abolished by the 13th Amendment to the Constitution in 1865, slavery would become a thing of the past. Even though slavery in the traditional sense has been done away with, many Americans have allowed themselves to become slaves.

Living in the richest nation on earth allows us to enjoy many things. Solomon wrote, "I know that nothing is better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives, and also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labor, it is the gift of God." (Ecccl. 3:12-13) The problem with being blessed with so much is the possibility of becoming enslaved to the blessings themselves. Once we become obsessed or enslaved to something, even things that are inherently good, our passions become sinful. The bible says, "Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness?" (Romans 6:16) Most Christians know that for them, the elements of immorality are things of the past. (1 Cor. 6:9-11) But when we allow the components of a good life to overtake us and consume all of our time and effort, we can become guilty of modern-day idolatry, and idolatry is sinful. (Col. 3:5)

American Christians can become enslaved to countless things, placing priority on them over the Lord. Our jobs, hobbies, children's activities, and social events all have the potential of making us their slaves. God and our service to Him must be placed first and foremost in our lives, and once that is done, we can break free from the sin that so easily ensnares us. (Heb. 12:1)

EN ESPAÑOL

Hay un Redentor (El libro de Ruth)

El libro de Gálatas es un mensaje urgente del apóstol Pablo, muy alarmado ante la posibilidad de que las iglesias de Galacia estuvieran dispuestas a abandonar las libertades que habían obtenido en Cristo y adoptar una práctica que las sometería a la esclavitud. En el libro Freed for Freedom (Liberados para la libertad), escrito por Edward Wharton, el autor afirma: «El mensaje de Gálatas es un mensaje de vida o muerte. El evangelio predicado a los gálatas es que, a través de la cruz, los pecadores pueden ser liberados del pecado por la fe en Cristo y, por la fidelidad, permanecer libres del pecado y tener paz con Dios». Este mensaje tan importante se presagia en el papel del pariente redentor del que leemos en el Antiguo Testamento. El libro de Rut nos ayudará a comprender este papel y cómo se cumplió finalmente en la persona de Cristo Jesús

5TH SUNDAY CONTRIBUTION

AUG. 31, 2025

BENEFITING COMMUNITY CUPBOARD

On Aug. 31, our 5th Sunday contribution will go toward supporting the Community Cupboard, a vital ministry that serves an average of 105 families each month. As we gear up for the busy fall season—including our annual holiday turkey distribution—your generosity is more important than ever. Our goal is to raise $12,000 to help finish the year strong and ensure no family in our community goes without food. Thank you for being the hands and feet of Christ in our neighborhood!
