If I Can?

Mark 9: 14-29

Sometimes you're on the mountaintop... and then life drags you straight back into the mess. In Mark 9, Jesus goes from divine glory to chaotic failure in a matter of moments—and His response? A little frustration, a lot of power, and a lesson we all need: belief isn't about having it all together, it's about trusting the One who does.

Join us as we unpack this powerful moment, ask the hard (and honest) questions, and discover what it really means to believe—even when we're not sure we do.

I. The Passage

- A. Jesus is just coming down from the _____.
- B. He finds His disciples and the scribes _____.
- C. Who answers Jesus' question?

II. Questions to ask

- A. What's the deal with _____?
 - 1. It's clear in this story, that _____ are _____.
 - 2. Their purpose is always the same: to _____ and _____ the _____ of _____ in _____.
 - 3. Important to note: When they encounter Jesus, they _____ stand _____.
- B. What does the Father mean?
 - 1. What does it mean to you to _____ but also not _____?
- C. Why couldn't the disciples beat the demon?
 - 1. In other accounts, it points to their lack of _____.
 - 2. Here however, it seems to point to their lack of _____.
- D. So, what part do we play?
 - 1. The first step is _____ in who _____.

Questions for Reflection:

- 1. Where in your life have you felt like you were on a spiritual "mountaintop," only to be quickly pulled back into real-world struggles? How did you respond in those moments?
- 2. The father in the story says, "I believe; help my unbelief." Where do you feel torn between belief and doubt right now?

EN ESPAÑOL

¿Si puedo?

A veces estás en la cima de la montaña... y luego la vida te arrastra de vuelta al desastre. En Marcos 9, Jesús pasa de la gloria divina al fracaso caótico en cuestión de momentos, ¿y su respuesta? Un poco de frustración, mucha fuerza y una lección que todos necesitamos: creer no consiste en tenerlo todo controlado, sino en confiar en Aquel que sí lo tiene. Acompáñanos a desentrañar este poderoso momento, a hacernos preguntas difíciles (y honestas) y a descubrir lo que realmente significa creer, incluso cuando no estamos seguros de creer.
