SERMON NOTES

He Set His Face

I. A Face Like Flint

- The Obedient Servant (Isaiah 50:7): "Therefore have I set my face like flint, and I know I will not be put to _____."
- The Prophetic Emissary (Ezekiel 21:2): "Son of man, set your face against Jerusalem and preach against the _____."
- Jesus acts simultaneously as both the obedient _____ and the _____ of the establishment.

II. Test 1: The Calculated Insult

- The Conflict: Mount _____ (Samaritan holy site) vs. Mount _____ (Jerusalem).

III. Holy War vs. Holy Walk

- The Sons of Thunder (James & John):
 - Scriptural justification: Emulating the prophet _____ (2 Kings 1:9-12).
- The Son of Man (Jesus):
 - Jesus turned and _____ them, moving on quietly to another village (Luke 9:55-56).
 - Scriptural reality: The Kingdom expands through patient _____, not retaliation.
 - Method: Quietly turning the shoulder and _____ away.

IV. Walking Into the Fire

- King Jesus did not come to call down fire on His enemies; He came to walk straight into the _____ for them.
- The calling on the road to Jerusalem is not to destroy those who oppose us, but to model the patient, non-retaliatory _____ of the King.

V. The Cost of Following: Three Encounters

1. The Impulsive Enthusiast

- Declared: "I will follow you wherever you go."
- Core Insight: Following Jesus offers less _____ than wild animals, not an upward career path.

2. The Respectable Procrastinator

- Claimed: "Lord, first let me go and _____ my father."
- The Shock: Kingdom urgency supersedes even the respectable duty of caring for aging parents, despite the _____ Commandment.

3. The Hesitant Looker-Back

- Requested: "Let me go back and say _____."
- The Comparison: _____ permitted a final goodbye (1 Kings 19:20), but Jesus establishes a higher standard.
