(Seat Bible: Page 921)

After this, the Lord appointed seventy-two others, and he sent them ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself was about to go. ²He told them, "The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest. ³Now go; I'm sending you out like lambs among wolves. ⁴Don't carry a money-bag, traveling bag, or sandals; don't greet anyone along the road. ⁵Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' ⁶If a person of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. ⁷Remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they offer, for the worker is worthy of his wages. Don't move from house to house. ⁸When you enter any town, and they welcome you, eat the things set before you. ⁹Heal the sick who are there, and tell them, 'The kingdom of God has come near you.' ¹⁰When you enter any town, and they don't welcome you, go out into its streets and say, ¹¹'We are wiping off even the dust of your town that clings to our feet as a witness against you. Know this for certain: The kingdom of God has come near.' ¹²I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

On the contrary, what does it say? The message is near you, in your mouth and in your heart. This is the message of faith that we proclaim: ⁹If you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰One believes with the heart, resulting in righteousness, and one confesses with the mouth, resulting in salvation. ¹¹For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes on him will not be put to shame, ¹²since there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, because the same Lord of all richly blesses all who call on him. ¹³For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Romans 10:8-13 (CSB)

LORD, you are my portion and my cup of blessing; you hold my future. ⁶The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; indeed, I have a beautiful inheritance. ⁷I will bless the LORD who counsels me—even at night when my thoughts trouble me. ⁸I always let the LORD guide me. Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken. ⁹Therefore my heart is glad and my whole being rejoices; my body also rests securely. ¹⁰For you will not abandon me to Sheol; you will not allow your faithful one to see decay. ¹¹You reveal the path of life to me; in your presence is abundant joy; at your right hand are eternal pleasures.
