6 When the men were returning home after David had killed the Philistine, the women came out from all the towns of Israel to meet King Saul with singing and dancing, with joyful songs and with timbrels and lyres.

7 As they danced, they sang:
“Saul has slain his thousands,
and David his tens of thousands.”

Colossians 1:9-12

Father, may they clearly know Your will and achieve the height and depth of spiritual wisdom and understanding. 10 May their lives be a credit to You, Lord; and what's more, may they continue to delight You by doing every good work and growing in the true knowledge that comes from being close to You. 11 Strengthen them with Your infinite power, according to Your glorious might, so that they will have everything they need to hold on and endure hardship patiently and joyfully. 12 Thank You, Father, as You have made us eligible to receive our portion of the inheritance given to all those set apart by the light. 13 You have rescued us from dark powers and brought us safely into the kingdom of Your Son, whom You love 14 and in whom we are redeemed and forgiven of our sins [through His blood].

Ephesians 3:14-21

14 When I think of all this, I pray to you Father, 15 Creator of everything in heaven and on earth. 16 I pray that from Your glorious, unlimited resources You will empower with inner strength through Your Spirit. 17 That Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him. That Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong.

DAVID

SHEPARD WARRIOR WORSHIPPER KING

18 And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love is. 19 May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God. 20 Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power to do exceedingly and abundantly above and beyond ... 21 Glory to him in the church and in Christ Jesus through all generations forever and ever! Amen.
