

WEEK 3 Our Questions Don't Always Get Answered

There's a verse in the Bible (Romans 8:28) that tells us God, in everything, works for our good. Some people think that means, "If I follow Jesus, everything's going to be all right!" But we know this isn't true. Even when we follow Jesus, we don't get everything we want, we still get hurt, and terrible things still happen to us. In Scripture, we can read the story of a guy named Job, whose whole world got turned upside down for no reason at all. Job asked God why. He never really got an answer, but God showed up, spoke to Job, and then redeemed his situation. When we experience pain and heartache, the hard truth is that (like Job) our questions don't always get answered, but God can always redeem what we've suffered or lost.
