

Your Story Isn't Over
Ruth 3:1-9
A Step of Faith

1. List some activities many people love but others will not do because they are too risky.
2. Read Ruth 2:20, Leviticus 25:25 and Deuteronomy 25:5-6. Describe what it meant for Boaz to be a guardian-redeemer for Ruth and Naomi.
3. Read Ruth 3:1. What is Naomi's primary concern for Ruth? What does the term "home" mean in this context?
4. Read Hebrews 4:3. What is the "rest" God provides those who are followers of Christ? How does this rest parallel the "home" Naomi sought for Ruth to have?
5. Read Ruth 3:2-6. Describe what Naomi was trying to get Ruth to do. Do Naomi's instructions seem morally questionable to you? Why or why not?
6. How does Ruth's response to Naomi illustrate her attitude of humility? Why is humility so pivotal in your relationship with God?
7. Describe a time in which you felt led to step out in faith. How does stepping out in faith ultimately teach us to rest in God?
8. Read Ruth 3:7-9. What was Ruth really asking of Boaz? What do you think was going through both Ruth and Boaz's minds?
9. Describe a time in which you witnessed bold faith in someone else. How did that person's radical faith impact you?
10. How is learning to rest in God the ultimate act of faith?
11. What is one area that God is calling you to step out in faith in this season of your life?
