DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Describe your dream vacation destination. Do you have traveling rules in your journeys?
2. What prompted Naomi's wild plan for her, and Ruth in verses 1-5 (hint: see 2:3-5 and 2:20)?
3. What would be involved to implement the plan? In verse 5, how does Ruth respond? Why does she respond so willingly?
4. Share an experience about how you stepped out in total faith and obedience like these ladies did.
5. Read Ruth 3:6-9. What do you think is going on in the mind of both Ruth and Boaz in this encounter?
6. How do you handle it when situations in your journey require actions that are "risky" without the guarantee of desired outcomes?
7. Read Ruth 3:10-15. What must have reassured Ruth in Boaz's response to her "proposal"? How does he view Ruth's character? Is his commitment based upon duty or desire (or both)?
8. What promises of God reassure you in the midst of your journey? How has God provided for you?
9. Read Ruth 3:16-18. Do you think Ruth, and Naomi wondered about "being there yet" in their debrief session? Explain.
10. What one thing do you need to do to patiently pursue His best for your life?
