DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Who is the most righteous person you know? How does our culture measure a person's "goodness?"
2. How "good" do you think you are? Do you feel that you deserve to go to hell because of your sin? Why or why not?
3. Read John 2:23-24. What do these verses communicate is in the heart of human beings?
4. Read John 3:1-9. Why do you think Nicodemus, a religious authority, went to speak to Jesus? Why at night?
5. What did Jesus know Nicodemus needed? What does it mean to be "born again?"
6. Read John 3:10-18. What kept Nicodemus from understanding what Jesus said? Do you think Jesus was harsh with him? Do ever feel that Jesus is too harsh with you?
7. How would you explain John 3:16-18 to someone who is not a Christ-follower?
8. How does "believing" change someone's life?
9. Read John 7:32 and 7:45-52. What do these verses reveal about Nicodemus' boldness? Would you be willing to take that kind of a risk on Jesus' behalf?
10. Read John 19:38-42. What do these verses indicate about Nicodemus' desire to honor Jesus? What are some ways that we can honor Jesus today?
11. How has this study challenged you spiritually (to be born again, to be grateful for eternal life, to share the gospel)?
