Scripture Reading.....Parker Speer

Mark 3:1-6

Another time Jesus went into the synagogue, and a man with a shriveled hand was there.

² Some of them were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath. ³ Jesus said to the man with the shriveled hand, "Stand up in front of everyone." ⁴ Then Jesus asked them, "Which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they remained silent.

⁵ He looked around at them in anger and, deeply distressed at their stubborn hearts, said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored.

⁶ Then the Pharisees went out and began to plot with the Herodians how they might kill Jesus.

Leader: We are many, God's great diversity,

People: yet we are one in Christ.

Leader: Different faces, different races,

People: yet we are one in Christ.

Leader: Butchers, bakers, website makers, bankers, tailors, teachers, sailors,

People: yet we are one in Christ.

Leader: Fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers, single, married, broken, carried,

People: yet we are one in Christ.

Leader: The happy, the clappy, the barely out of nappies, the ancient, the modern, the famous, the forgotten,

People: yet we are one in Christ.

Leader: Some hopeful, some hopeless, some cope well, some cope less. Some sure and some doubt, some whisper, some shout,

People: yet we are one in Christ.

Leader: Those with abundance, those with need, those who are generous or wrestle with greed,

People: yet we are one in Christ.

Leader: A broken body, torn apart, mars God's image, breaks God's heart. And yet our Father knows how the end will be, when all his kids will sing in harmony,

People: that we are one in Christ.

“The Greatest Gift is Love” arr. by Mark Hayes

Sanctuary Choir

*Though I speak with tongues of angels, though my voice is touched with gold,
Without love each word is discord, clanging brass and cymbals bold.
Though I know as much as prophets, though my faith is strong and sure,
Without love these are as nothing, neither words nor work endure.*

*Though I give my goods to others, and my flesh I give to burn,
Without love each gift is worthless, till the gift of love I learn.
Love is always kind and patient, neither jealous, boastful, rude:
Neither selfish nor conceited, but with every grace imbued.*

*Love releases all resentment, takes no pleasure in the wrong;
Love finds truth delightful always and endures what comes along.
Though not easily offended, Love is eager to forgive,
Always trusting, always hoping, precious love will always live!*

*In a world that is imperfect, many gifts will pass away;
Faith and hope and love are endless; these, and these alone will stay.
To a world where all is changing comes a promise from above:
Faith and hope will last forever, but the greatest gift is love.*
