

Revelation 14:13 says, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying, 'Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.' 'Blessed indeed,' says the Spirit, 'that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!'" Tia was always so on fire for Jesus. She was so joyful and her faith is how I want my own faith to be: strong, unwavering, joyful, and grateful even in the midst of sorrow. Tia will always be remembered by these things, but I'm sure that the thing that she would've wanted us to remember the most is not herself, but her Savior Jesus Christ, who rescued her so many years ago. Even though this is a time to mourn, it is also a time to rejoice, for she is home with her Lord and Savior now, finally finished with the race and at rest. I'm praying for you all.

Psalm 34:1-8 (ESV)

¹ I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

² My soul makes its boast in the LORD;
let the humble hear and be glad.

³ Oh, magnify the LORD with me,
and let us exalt his name together!

⁴ I sought the LORD,
and he answered me
and delivered me from all my fears.

⁵ Those who look to him are radiant,
and their faces shall never be ashamed.

⁶ This poor man cried,
and the LORD heard him
and saved him out of all his troubles.

⁷ The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him,
and delivers them.

⁸ Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good!
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!
