

The Manifesto Principle

Who's That With You?

Genesis 12: 4 KJV

4 So Abram departed, as the Lord had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

Introduction: Attachment's versus Alignment

What this sermon series is designed to do, is to give to us, prophetic clarity for the season we're in, preparation for the launching of a new beginning, and preemptive pause to make sure that all passengers on The Bethel Church train is prepared for the next level. In order for this to happen, we are going to have to pay close attention to the messages coming from this pulpit, that are divinely orchestrated to prepare us, not to entertain us. We have to embrace things that many of you see as optional events for you to pick and choose, as opposed to seeing them as opportunities for personal spiritual development and corporate spiritual growth and alignment. Things like, The Threshing Floor, Pull Over For Prayer, The End Theatrical Production, Special Communion and Prayer Services, In person Sunday Worship. These are opportunities for developing corporate unity, God's way. We have got to strengthen our bond of oneness, there is too much personal isolation and not enough fellowship, centered around one common goal. That common goal is to advance The Kingdom of God Agenda.

What Are You Up To?

- Everyone who goes with you won't grow with you:

There's a difference between going a part and growing apart.

- Everyone in your house may not want to be a part of your home.

A house is the structure , but a home is the substance that makes it an environment that welcomes peace, tranquility, wholeness, unity, oneness, devotion, spiritual sustenance, and a calmness that kills anxiety and tension.

- Some people are good and keeping house, but they know nothing about building home.
- Some people are not good for your journey because their only interest, is your arrival.

These are the, I'll send for you after I get there people. Some of the challenges of the journey are, scene changes, season changes, strange and unscheduled challenges and unpredictable encounters. You have to be freely focused to deal with whatever is thrown at you. Truth be told, everybody can't handle these kinds of mandated adjustments. The familiarity of comfort is exposed once that comfort has been removed, even if it's only temporary ,it can produce a permanent and future problem.

Logistics for Managing Leaders and Follower's

Logistics: Strategic and organizational planning, that moves something or someone from one place or thing ,to another.

1Thessalonians 5:11-15

11 “So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing.”

12 “Dear brothers and sisters, honor those who are your leaders in the Lord's work. They work hard among you and give you spiritual guidance.

13 Show them great respect and wholehearted love because of their work. And live peacefully with each other.

14 Brothers and sisters, we urge you to warn those who are lazy. Encourage those who are timid. Take tender care of those who are weak. Be patient with everyone.

15 See that no one pays back evil for evil, but always try to do good to each other and to all people.”

1. Hidden Motives:

“People with personal motives that they hide from you.”

- Explain why You're With Me.

Where there is no explanation, there can be no expectation, then people can choose to do whatever they want without being checked.

2. Unholy Alliances:

“Connected to something for a reason that is not godly or godlike.”

3. Hinge Helpers:

“Latches that are in your corner, to hold you up.”

- Don't confuse latches and leaches.

Latches hang on and take nothing from that which they are holding together. they just gladly swing with you. And if they get squeaky, all they need is a little oiling.

Leaches, they cling on but sting on, and their motive is to suck the blood and life out of you. They add nothing to your survival, but contribute intentionally to your demise.

4. Corrupt Cargo:

“Anything that the airline says you can’t carry is considered corrupt.”

You have to require consecration of your cargo.

Joshua 3:1-5

1 And Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over.

2 And it came to pass after three days, that the officers went through the host;

3 And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it.

4 Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore.

5 And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the Lord will do wonders among you.

5. Copycat Competitors:

“ People who have no personal identity, so they copy you in order to compete with you.”

What they don't know is that they can't be better at being you, than you.

6. Complaining Critics: People who always have something to say about nothing.

Nothing makes them happy, not even themselves.

7. Bridge Builders:

“These are the people you take with you because they are constructive and never destructive.”

They come to help keep the hope alive, the momentum moving, and limit unnecessary hindrances. They become the shoulders that carry you across the tough places.

8. Breaking Bonds that Build Gaps:

You have to disconnect yourself from, Self-Ambitious Agendas, Accumulative Arguments from people, who are not looking for truthful answers. These people within themselves, already know what they know, they're just trying to prove that you don't know, what you think you know. So they take on a wasted posture of competitive and confrontational conversations. Failing to realize that you're locked into what you heard, not what they see or think.

Conclusion: We move forward in this season of our ministry, vaccinate ourselves from every satanic influence and interference, that brings threat to the calling and the assignment of God on the house of The Bethel Church.
