

We Will Come Back From This

The Fulfillment of a Prophetic Plan

Ezekiel 37:1-14 KJV

1 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves,

14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

Introduction: We are in a time and season where the compromising of spiritual objectives must be abandoned and discarded. Resistance to spiritual commands and divine directives can only lead to negative and destructive conclusions. As the people of God, we have to abstain from all human influences and ideologies so that we can experience the best that God has for us. During our first prayer watch, one of our visiting pastors gave us a word regarding the idol of preference. It is the idea of being devoted to the things that we prefer, opposed to the things that God has purposed and prepared. So many people in the church have the tendency to desire what they prefer, instead of hearing and obeying what God speaks through His appointed leaders. This was the problem that God always had with His people, they were stiff necked, argumentative and full of divisive tactics used to persuade people away from God's purpose and plan. Let me remind some and inform others; there is a whole lot of prayer and fasting that covers the leadership of this church. We are very spiritually intentional in our discerning God's purpose and plans for The Bethel Church. We do this in spite of wavering and at times wilting support, due to the weariness that tends to consume the physical, mental and emotional desires of people in ministry. But we who are strong and devoted to the God cause, we bear the infirmities of the weak and we don't allow ourselves to grow weary in well doing, for we know that we will reap if we don't faint by losing heart and courage.

Serving God is never meant to be easy, leading and feeding God's people is also never meant to be easy. But when you've been cut for the work, and anointed for the call, you just keep pressing forward even when all external signs tell you to throw in the towel. So I am here today by the will of God to prophetically declare, regardless of what our recent past or present history may look like, We Will Come Back From This. I don't care what it looks like, feel like or seem like, the hand of the Lord is Upon Us. I've always known it, I have never lost hope in it, never allowed discouragement to make me bow to the circumstances.

Yes at one point I was deceived by my own admissions and adverse physical conditions, relational and personal conclusions, but God ruined my plans so that my plans wouldn't ruin me. My intentions were authentic, I just made some human miscalculated mistakes. But where we are now is more important than dwelling on the past, mentally or emotionally. So open up your ears today and hear and receive what The Lord has to say to us on this day January 4, 2026. Don't let your mind rush you through it, but let the Spirit of God move you right along with it.

The Ezekiel Discourse: The vision of the valley or plain of dry bones has several prophetic interpretations, some see it as a teaching on the post-exilic return of those who were in exile. Some see it as an Old Testament doctrine of bodily resurrection, or as an analogy for spiritual regeneration and the birth of the church. Dispensationalist, see it as the resurrection and restoration of end-time national Israel. Contextually, it is designed to be a message of hope to a despondent people whose Jerusalem was ravaged and whose people were led into exile. Whatever conclusions you come to, the obvious is clear, God has a future beyond Babylon for those who believe in Him. He is saying emphatically that no matter what kind of miracle He has to perform, His people will come back from the purposed oppression of captivity and bondage.

1 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

The Prophets Participation: He was taken by the Spirit in this vision and placed in a place, not of his choosing.

- The comfort of being in uncomfortable environments: The comfort is in knowing that God placed you there.

The Prophets Present Predicament:

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

Dead: Without life, movement or momentum.

Dry: Hebrew (yavesh) barren and without hope. This represents the condition of Israel's hope and the miracle that it would take to bring the nation back to life.

Scattered: They were misplaced, no sense of direction or meaning, just everyone doing their own thing. No collected bonding.

Individualism: The independence of an individual, who prioritizes personal freedom, self-reliance, and self-fulfillment over a group interest.

Does not always work in the best interest of a vision or goal. We can have different talents and gifts, but all of that must be centered around one goal.

Disconnected: disconnected which leads to a serious case of dysfunction and division.

“Nothing works together that isn’t together.”

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live?
And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.

The Prophets Perspective: Son of man, can these bones live?

“A Prophet on on a God assignment must be a Prophet in agreement with God.”

Never preach or give a message to people about something that you don't even believe.

The Prophetic Instruction and Proclamation:

4 Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

- This is how a God strategy works; it always involves the engaging of His Spirit. He speaks to your hearing.

Hear: Hebrew word Sh'm (shama)- It is a verb that means to not just physically hear, also to listen, understand and obey.

It implies an active response to verbal instructions for the gaining of wisdom and heeding God's word. There are some times in life when you can't talk your way out of dead situations, you have to hear your way out by heeding to the voice of the Spirit.

The Prophetic Power is Portrayed:

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

Noise and shaking

Awakening: The process of a sudden attentive alertness and awareness.

Unity Gathering - A Coming together of individuals who share a common idea, but bring different individual contributing factors together to make that idea a consistent living reality.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

Sinews: (tough fibrous tissue that unites muscle bone or bone to bone.

It's the parts of a structure, system, or thing that give it strength to bind together. That sounds like a leadership innate attribute to me, the ability to bring and pull people together.

.....but there was no breath in them.

Breath: Hebrew (ruah) breath, wind or spirit

This is the same breath similar to the creation of Adam in Genesis 2:7, there was no life until God breathed into mans nostril, the breath of life.

Anything that does not have God's breath in it is dead on day one.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

Four Winds: The number four is used 12 times in chapter 1 of Ezekiel, and more than 40 times in the book of Ezekiel. It is a symbol of completeness. Ezekiel 37:9 God speaks of four winds and in Genesis 13:14 He speaks of four directions, in Isaiah 11:12 speaks of four corners. These creatures are further defined in Ezekiel chapter 1:10, and are called cherubim's in chapter 10.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

Prophesied: To declare a revealed truth that is inspired by God.

God is resurrecting dead bodies and raising up an army from amongst the dead. Remember I preached a message titled, I see dead people....

Standing Ready to follow Marching Orders

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

The Perception of a People who are Paralyzed by the Pains of their Past.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

Graves: Whatever has held you captive to bondage.

Captivity is a physical containment, and Bondage is a mental conditioning.

“Your human resolutions are only as good as God’s divine and Prophetic Revelation”

I will open your graves, and cause you to come out. Whatever God has to do and to whomever He has to do it to, He's going to miraculously bring you out of it. Not because it's a new year, but because He's making you a new you.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves,

14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

My spirit is the same ruah as breath but in this passage it refers to God putting His Spirit in you.
