The point of marriage is not to simply get married or stay married, but to enjoy a life-long journey of love and oneness.

Marriages can struggle when the fragile categories of our lives collide with our unstable world.

Suffering will teach us to run to a substitute or run to God.

Psalm 27:1-3 The Lord is my light and my salvation— whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life— of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked advance against me to devour me, it is my enemies and my foes who will stumble and fall. Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear; though war break out against me, even then I will be confident.

A marriage finds lasting confidence through the instability of life when the Lord is their stronghold.

Psalm 27:4, 8 One thing I ask from the Lord, this only do I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the Lord and to seek him in his temple. and set me high upon a rock... Hear my voice when I call, Lord; be merciful to me and answer me. My heart says of you, "Seek his face!" Your face, Lord, I will seek.

A marriage finds lasting confidence through the instability of life when they dwell in God's presence.

Psalm 27:13-14 I remain confident of this: I will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord.

A marriage finds lasting confidence through the instability of life when they trust in God's timing.
