Marriages can struggle because they don't have much financially.

Marriages can struggle because they do have much financially.

Proverbs 30:7-9 Two things I ask of you, Lord: do not refuse me before I die: Keep falsehood and lies far from me; give me neither poverty nor riches, but give me only my daily bread. Otherwise, I may have too much and disown you and say, "Who is the Lord?" Or I may become poor and steal, and so dishonor the name of my God.

The thirst for more tempts both those who have little and much.

Philippians 4:10-11 I rejoiced greatly in the Lord that at last you renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you were concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances.

A lasting marriage learns contentment in their current financial situation.

Philippians 4:12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want.

A lasting marriage learns contentment in their current financial situation.

Philippians 4:13 I can do all this through him who gives me strength.

A lasting marriage learns contentment in their current financial situation when their dependence is on Christ.
