

Kingdom Entrance Worksheet

Series: Do You Have Your Keys to the Kingdom?

Introduction

Fill-in-the-Blank:

You can carry _____ and never walk through the _____.

Reflection:

What is the Holy Spirit revealing to me about my current walk?

I. Obedience – The Kingdom's Entry Gate

Fill-in-the-Blank:

Gifts don't guarantee entrance—_____ does.

God isn't impressed by _____ service; He's looking for _____ alignment.

Reflection:

Where in my life have I mistaken activity for obedience?

II. Kingdom Living Requires a New Mindset

Fill-in-the-Blank:

To enter the Kingdom, you must _____ your old thinking.

Do not _____ to this world, but be _____ by the renewing of your mind.

Reflection:

What worldly patterns am I still conforming to?

How can I allow God's Word to transform my mind?

III. How Do We Enter the Kingdom?Fill-in-the-Blank:

We enter the Kingdom:

1. Through _____ and _____
2. By being _____ again of _____ and _____
3. By submitting to the _____'s rule.

Reflection:

Which of these steps have I fully walked in?

Which step do I need to respond to today?

Final Teaching PointFill-in-the-Blank:

Kingdom entry is not about _____, but about _____.

It's not about _____, but about _____.

Reflection:

Am I positioned under the King? Why or why not?

Call to Action

Fill-in-the-Blank:

Have I truly _____ or just been _____?

Have I been _____ or just _____?

Is Jesus my _____ or just a Sunday _____?

Reflection:

What is my honest answer to these questions?

What is the Spirit calling me to do next?
